

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS
GEORGIA RURAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION
STUDENT POSTER SESSION
“Rural Can’t Wait-Better Health in 08”

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: AUGUST 15, 2008*

Name:

College/University:

Telephone:

Department:

e-Mail:

Degree Program:

Abstract Submission Procedure

The Georgia Rural Health Association is currently accepting abstracts from students to present at the annual conference at Brasstown Valley Resort in Young Harris, Georgia on September 16, 2008. Submitted abstracts are limited to 250 words and should have themes congruent with improved health, healthcare, and information pertaining to rural Georgia

Topics to consider for submission

Access to Care; Mental Health; Oral Health; Educational & Community-Based Programs; Diabetes; Injury & Violence Prevention; Nutrition & Overweight; Public Health Infrastructure; Tobacco; Maternal, Infant, & Child Health; Occupational Safety & Health; Cancer; Environmental Health; Heart Disease & Stroke, Economic Impact of Healthcare in Rural Communities; HIV/AIDS prevention and treatment. Other topics include the legislative agenda items on the GRHA Legislative Agenda page:

<http://www.garuralhealth.org/legislation.php>

Title

Abstract (250 word limit)

Abstracts should be submitted electronically to:

Stuart H. Tedders, PhD
Director, Center for Rural Health & Research
Jiann-Ping Hsu College of Public Health
Georgia Southern University
stedders@georgiasouthern.edu

Nanette Turner, PhD
Department of Community Medicine
Mercer University School of Medicine
turner_nc@mercer.edu

In the event of space limitations, acceptable abstracts will be selected in the order in which they are received.